

SA commended for Bookmobile decision

I write this letter as a reaction to a recent decision made by the majority of the South Allegheny School Board. Once again, the school district has kept the senior citizens and entire community in its thoughts, plans, and actions. The Allegheny County Carnegie Bookmobile is a fabulous opportunity for seniors, children, parents, and all community members to have access to an abundance of reading materials.

I applaud Mr. (Pat) Risha, superintendent, and the majority of the board for making this a reality for all of the boroughs of South Allegheny. The location at the new elementary school is excellent. It provides parking, good lighting, easy access, and safety.

How can three members of the board vote NO for reading? I thought education was your first priority? The key to being educated is being able to read and hopefully read well. By having the Bookmobile, the communities will still be able to have the ability to read, not only for pleasure, but to and with our children and grandchildren. I am disappointed in your priorities.

Read and take a journey!
